

LAUREL GUILD YANCEY

July 12, 2017

As a practicing communications attorney, with 39 years of experience, including 15 years employment with the FCC, and service as the project attorney for a rural broadband infrastructure network deployment, I am filing my comments in favor of strong net neutrality rules grounded in Title II. It is appropriate for broadband service to remain as a Title II public utility.

Laurel Guild Yancey